

Rimrose Hope Celebrating World Book Day

Friday 7th March 2025

Dear Parent,

We will be celebrating WBD next Friday with a special 'Vocabulary Fashion Show'. Your child chooses a word (e.g., "magical" or "adventurous") and dresses up or down or anyway at all to represent it. We will then hold a class parade to show off our collective efforts.

I know that you will have a few suggestions for my own outfit, but I was thinking suave or sophisticated?

Anyway, I will leave it to you to be as creative and studious, happy and joyful, sporty and outgoing as you want to be, and look forward to the results.

Details:

Choose a word to dress up as and wear your outfit on Friday 7th March.

Costume ideas:

Literal representation: Dressing as a "ruler" for the word "measure".

Conceptual representation: Wearing a bright outfit for "radiant".

Play on words: "Super" hero costume for the word "super".

The parade will take place in the school hall at 2:00pm. Unfortunately we will not be able to accommodate parents at this event, but we will make sure we post lots of videos and photos.

Reading Challenge Challenge!

We are also asking the children to take part in our Reading Challenge Challenge!

The aim of the challenge is to find the most interesting, challenging, unusual place to read your favourite book, and take a photograph that we can share on our Twitter and Facebook site.

We will reward all photos with a book badge for your necker. Email your photos to admin.rimrosehope@schools.sefton.gov.uk or upload them to our Facebook or X page.
